

Vivienne van Vliet

E-mail: viviennevanvliet@gmail.com

- OBJECTIVE I am a student at New York University seeking summer employment. I was born in the Netherlands and spend roughly half my life there, went to school in Nashville, Tennessee and am currently majoring in Economics at NYU. My interest include communications, media and advertising.
- EDUCATION New York University College of Arts and Science, class of 2013 SAT
Majoring in Economics/International Relations 2170 (max. 2400)
High School: MLK Magnet at Pearl High, 613 17th Ave. North, Nashville, TN 37203
- COURSE WORK • Economics • Intermediate II German • Calculus • Writing • International Politics
• Economics II • Chinese • Photography • Statistics • Intermediate Micro Economics
• Chinese II • Natural Science (Energy and Environment)
- WORK EXPERIENCE Panera Bread Company (casual restaurant-style bakery)
782 Old Hickory Blvd.
Brentwood, TN 37027
• June 2007 – current (except when living in New York)
• Worked as an Associate in this fast-paced casual sit-down style restaurant; typical duties include: ringing up orders, picking orders, preparing beverages, end-of-day closing duties.
• Achieved two salary raises in 2 years time
- SKILLS Excellent organization and computer skills in both MacOS X and Windows XP/Vista/7, thorough knowledge of Microsoft Office 2003 Suite, proficient in Adobe Photoshop CS3
- LANGUAGES Fluent in English, Mandarin Chinese, German, and Dutch
- HOBBIES Photography, see also www.viviennevanvliet.com
Exploring New York City
Blogging
- AVAILABILITY May 17 – August 31, 2010
- REFERENCE Mr. Brent McIntosh, Panera Bread Company, Branch Manager, (615) 370-9718
Mrs. Chen Xuan, Chinese teacher at NYU, (917) 502-8301
Mrs. Joan MacDonald, German teacher for 4 years, (615) 516-5266